

The Celebrant continues

...and offering to you, from the gifts you have given us, this bread and this cup, we praise you and we bless you.

We praise you, we bless you, we give thanks to you, and we pray to you, Lord our God.

The celebrant continues

Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God and Father, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, for ever and ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

Lord's Prayer (All say together) BCP, 364

Fraction Anthem S-152, Hymnal

Cantor: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

If you wish to receive communion, place your hands palms up for a host or you may ask for a gluten-free host. You may receive the wine by drinking directly from the chalice, by holding up your host and asking the server to intinct (dip) for you, or you may receive the bread alone, which is a full and valid communion; for a blessing, cross your arms over your chest. If coming to the altar is difficult for you for any reason, simply tell the ushers and we will bring the sacrament to your pew.

Communion Hymns 504 and 513 Hymnal

Postcommunion Prayer (All say together) BCP, 365

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sermon The Rev. Charles Lane Cowen

Renewal of Baptismal Vows BCP, 292

Do you affirm your renunciation of evil and renew your commitment to Jesus Christ?
I do.

Do you believe in God the Father?
I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
I will, with God's help.

Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
I will, with God's help.

Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
I will, with God's help.

Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
I will, with God's help.

Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
I will, with God's help.

May Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and bestowed upon us the forgiveness of sins, keep us in eternal life by his grace, in Christ Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Alleluia! The Lord is risen! What was dead shall live; what was dark shall shine; what was forgotten shall be remembered. Let us with all confidence bring before God the needs of the world, asking for renewal.

Loving God, as the church lifts our voice in prayer, may the rich mosaic of our belief in the Resurrection inspire all Christians to pray intentionally and act boldly.
Alleluia! We join our voices with believers worldwide in a chorus of hope that binds us together.

Loving God, we pray for our nation in all its diversity. May we honor one another and may public officials at all levels and from all backgrounds serve with decency and respect for all.
Alleluia! Inspire us to show forth in our lives what we profess by our faith and do unto others as we would have done unto us.

Loving God, we pray for peace in the whole world and for cooperation among nations. For the good earth which you have given us: animals, land, air, and water, and for the wisdom and will to conserve it.
Alleluia! We pray for the healing of your creation.

Loving God, give us grace to serve Christ in one another, and love as he loves us. Give us vitality that we may serve you by serving our community.
Alleluia! May the power of your Resurrection enable us to act with unwavering faith.

Loving God, you are the comfort of all who sorrow, the strength of all who suffer in body, mind and spirit, and the liberator of the poor and the oppressed.
Alleluia! Show us your mercy, and give us the strength to serve one another, for the sake of Jesus Christ, who suffered for us.

Loving God, we pray for those who have died, [especially _____]. May you be glorified in all the saints.
Alleluia! In the promise of Resurrection, bring them into your heavenly kingdom, and transform our sorrow into joy.

Loving God, you know the prayers that are in our hearts and minds. We offer them to you now, silently or aloud.

The celebrant adds a concluding collect.
