

The Celebrant continues
... Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory;

The celebrant continues
...By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Lord's Prayer (All say together) BCP, 364

Fraction Anthem S-155, Hymnal

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.
Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
therefore let us keep the feast.
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

If you wish to receive communion, place your hands palms up for a host or you may ask for a gluten-free host. You may receive the wine by drinking directly from the chalice, by holding up your host and asking the server to intinct (dip) for you, or you may receive the bread alone, which is a full and valid communion; for a blessing, cross your arms over your chest. If coming to the altar is difficult for you for any reason, simply tell the ushers and we will bring the sacrament to your pew.

Communion Hymn 336 and 466 Hymnal

Postcommunion Prayer (All say together) BCP, 366

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Sermon The Rev. Charles Lane Cowen

The Nicene Creed (all say together) BCP, 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, with the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified, he has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Let us pray to God for unity and harmony across the world, that we, too, may be one.

All-loving God, we pray for the dignity and rights of all your children. Protect those who work for peace and equality. Forgive our divisions and make us one.
Lord, we come to you. You can make us whole.

Lord of life, help us seek out the lonely, the oppressed, and those living without life’s basic needs, to offer friendship and service. Help our hearts, minds, and eyes see your holy light burning brightly in each of us.
Lord, we come to you. You can make us whole.

Lord of peace, we give thanks for our unique and fragile Earth, and the people of all nations. We pray for freedom from famine, war, and suffering. May the Holy Spirit protect those in harm’s way.
Lord, we come to you. You can make us whole.

Lord of mercy, we pray for those traveling by land, water, and air this summer. Guide them safely, so they may spread love and goodwill. Give us reverence for our planet, and make us stewards of your sacred resources.
Lord, we come to you. You can make us whole.

Lord of love, we pray for all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, and those for whom no one prays. We pray for people who have big burdens and little hope. May they be wrapped in the Holy Spirit’s love, and their community’s compassion.
Lord, we come to you. You can make us whole.

Lord of all, we remember before you those who have died [especially _____] who pray with us and for us. May they and all the saints know the joys of your eternal love.
Lord, we come to you. You can make us whole.

In our Diocesan Cycle of Prayers, we pray for Christ Church, Eastville and Hungars Cure, Bridgetown; for single parent homes and childcare centers, for the safety of all children while they are out of school.
Lord, we come to you. You can make us whole.

Lord God, we offer you the prayers of our hearts either silently or aloud.
The people may add their own petitions.

The priest adds a concluding collect.

Confession of Sin and Absolution (All say together) BCP, 360

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.
